

The Simon H. Rifkind Center, and The Picker Center PRESENT

Ang Lee's

EAT DRINK

MAN

WOMAN

"What is most surprising, perhaps, is how involved we become with these people. As satisfying as food can be, the fullness we feel at the end here is far richer and more complex than that offered by the most extravagant meal. 'Eat Drink Man Woman' is a delicacy but also something more—something like food for the heart."

—Hal Hinson, Washington Post

Tuesday, September 12, 2006

From Noon until 2:30 P.M.
NAC 6/316

"A superb film. It's perceptive and ponderously unpredictable."

—Nix, BeyondHollywood.com