

THE BEGINNING OF ANOTHER 20 YEARS OF CULTURE

The Simon H. Rifkind Center

presents

Billy Wilder's

ONE, TWO, THREE

COLA versus
COMMUNISM

"A fast-paced, high-pitched, hard-hitting, lighthearted farce crammed with topical gags and spiced with satirical overtones . . . Total experience packs a considerable wallop."— Variety

Tuesday, March 13, 2007

"At once hysterical and ironic, sophisticated and vulgar, set to Khachaturian's 'Saber Dance' and marching to a drumbeat of running gags, One, Two, Three celebrates as it satirizes American cultural imperialism."—J. Hoberman, Village Voice

From 2 P.M.
NAC 6/316

STARRING
James Cagney
Horst Buchholz
Arlene Francis
Pamela Tiffin