

THE BEGINNING OF ANOTHER 20 YEARS OF CULTURE

The Simon H. Rifkind Center

presents

Billy Wilder's

Sabrina (1954)

"A thoroughly charming, delightfully romantic variation of the Cinderella story."

—James Barardinelli, ReelViews

"A fantastic cast and witty dialogue."

—Crazy for Cinema

"Anyone who loves to watch Audrey Hepburn will be glad to know that this is one of her best performances."— Silver Screen Reviews

Tuesday, May 1, 2007

"It's a satirical battle of New World crass materialism versus Old World romanticism, with the kicker being that in a democratic environment, despite its many drawbacks, fairy tales are more likely to occur."
