The City University of New York

CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK RESIDENCY FORM

To be eligible for New York State (NYS) tuition and fees, you may be required to prove NYS residency for at least a twelve-month period (1 year) effective the first day of class. If there is a question regarding your NYS residency and you wish to be charged in-state rates, you must complete a CUNY Residency Form. The information you provide will determine if you meet the guidelines set by CUNY. Failure to provide the required documentation(s) will result in you being billed as a non-resident. Incomplete applications or missing documents will delay the processing of the form.

New freshmen, transfer, graduate or special category students should submit the following documentation to the Office of Admissions, Wille Administration Building, Room 101. Continuing City College students should submit documentation to the Office of the Registrar, Administration Building, Room 102.

New York State Residency in Brief

The following outlines the basic requirements a student must fulfill to qualify for the in-state tuition rate as a resident of the State or City of New York. As is set forth in the CUNY Fee Manual, students may also qualify for the in-state tuition rate on other grounds, including having attended a high school or having obtained a GED or TASC in the State of New York. If a student is A US Citizen; or a Permanent Resident; or in a qualifying Immigration Status and has as continuously resided in State of NY for 12 months immediately preceding the first day of classes,

Rules Relating to Establishing Residence in New York

- Generally, a dependent student's state of residency is considered the same as that of his or her custodial parent(s) or legal guardian(s).
- The legal residence of a dependent student, whose parents are divorced, separated, or otherwise living apart will be considered New York State if the student resides for 12 months with the parent who is a New York State resident.
- To be designated a New York State resident, a student whose parent(s) or legal guardian(s) reside out-of-state must present evidence that he or she meets CUNY's residency requirements set forth in above,

AND EITHER

- (a) that he/she is financially independent from his/her parents. Proof of financial independence must be documented. Factors taken into account in determining financial independence include, but are not limited to: whether the student is taken as a dependent on parents' federal and state income tax returns; whether the student is employed and the amount the student earned relative to expenses; the extent of financial support received by the student from parents or guardians; and other sources of student income;
- OR
- (b) that he/she, despite being dependent on out-of-state parents(s) or legal guardian(s), has changed his/her domicile, i.e. the place that he/she has a bona fide intention of living permanently, to New York State. Such a showing must be made by clear and convincing evidence. Students who claim that New York is their domicile are expected to have a New York State driver's license or New York State issued identification card dated a minimum of twelve (12) months prior to the start of the semester. In addition, a student is expected to submit documentary evidence indicating he/she has changed his/her domicile to New York, such as the following:
1. evidence that the student has filed a New York State resident income tax return for the previous calendar year;
 2. evidence that the student resided in the State of New York for a significant period of time for other-than-educational purposes prior to attending CUNY;
 3. evidence that the student resides in property owned by the student or his/her parent(s) or legal guardian(s) in the State of New York;
 4. evidence showing that the student uses his/her New York address as his/her sole address of record for all purposes including on health and auto insurance records, bank accounts, tax records, loan and scholarship records, school records, military records, leases and similar kinds of documents.

Qualifying Immigration Statuses

To be accorded resident status, a student who is not a U.S. citizen must present valid evidence, issued by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security - U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS"), indicating that he/she is in a qualifying immigration status. See below. Undocumented and out-of-status immigrants while not eligible to be considered "residents", may, nevertheless, be entitled to pay the resident tuition rate if they attended and graduated from high school or received a GED or TASC in New York State.

The following categories of students are in qualifying immigration statuses:

1. Lawful permanent residents – See CUNY Fee Manual for categories accepted as proof.
2. Students in certain immigration categories: A Ambassador, diplomats and certain other foreign officials and their families; E Treaty trader/Treaty investor, spouse, and children; G Certain government or international organization officials and their families; H-1B Temporary worker in specialty occupation; H-1C Temporary worker performing professional nursing services; H-4 Spouse or children of alien classified as H-1B or H-1C; I Representatives of foreign information media and their spouse and children; K Fiancé(e) or Spouse of a U.S. citizen and dependent children; L Intra-company transferee (such as managers who have worked abroad for a branch of a U.S. firm) and their spouse and children; N Parents and children of certain officers and employees of international organizations who were in turn granted permanent residency as special immigrants; O Aliens who possess extraordinary ability in the sciences, arts, education, Business or athletics, motion pictures or television; R Religious workers and their spouse and children; S Crime witnesses and their spouse and children; T Victims of severe forms of human trafficking; U Victims of serious crimes; V Certain spouses and children of lawful permanent residents who have a relative petition filed on their behalf before December 21, 2000 which has been pending for at least three (3) years.
3. Students admitted as refugees, or granted asylum, or granted Withholding of Deportation or Removal. Acceptable proof is the following: Decision from USCIS or Immigration Judge granting asylum or Withholding of Deportation or removal; I-94 with Employment Authorization Asylum Granted; Employment Document (EAD) with codes (A)(3) for Refugee, (A)(5) for Asylee, and (A)(10) for Withholding of Deportation or Removal.
4. Students with Adjustment of Status Applications Pending I-485 Applicant or Work Authorization - Students who have filed the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) form I-485 and are waiting for adjustment of status to permanent resident are eligible for in-state tuition. Students who are pending an adjustment of status can submit the following: (1) an Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) or USCIS Receipt for the Adjustment of Status Application indicating receipt of the I-485; or (2) USCIS receipt indicating that the fee for the adjustment application has been received. The receipt will list the I-485, the name of applicant, file number and amount paid; or (3) an Employment Authorization Card with the codes (A)(3), (A)(5), (A)(10), (C)(8), (C)(9), (C)(11), (C)(14), (C)(19), (C)(22), or (C)(24).
5. Students who have applied or granted Temporary Protected Status. Acceptable proof is the following: USCIS Receipt of Application for TPS (Form I-821); or, A USCIS letter granting TPS; or Employment Authorization Document (I-766) with the codes (a)(12) or (c)(19).
6. Students granted Deferred Enforced Departure (DED) or Deferred Action or Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). For details see CUNY fee manual. Acceptable proof is the following: Form I-797 granting Deferred Action, Deferred Enforced Departure status, or Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals; or Unexpired Employment Authorization Document (EAD) (I-766) with the code (c)(14) for Deferred Action status; or Unexpired Employment Authorization Document (EAD) (I-766) with the code (a)(11) for Deferred Enforced Departure (DED)/extended voluntary departure status; or Unexpired Employment Authorization Document (EAD) (I-766) with the code (c)(33) for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA).
7. Student who fall into one the following categories: NACARA applicants, Cuban Parolees, other Parolees and students who have applied for Asylum and been granted USCIS Employment Authorization. See CUNY Fee manual for details.
8. Undocumented or Out-of-Status - Students who wish to claim in-state tuition, must submit one of the following documents: (1) diploma from an approved NYS High School where the student attended for two or more years and graduated within five years prior to applying to CUNY; or (2) General Education Development (GED) Diploma issued by an approved NYS Program within five years prior to applying to CUNY; or (3) the most current bill from a CUNY institution demonstrating the student was charged as a resident.

The following visa categories of non-immigrant aliens do not qualify for the resident rate of tuition: B, C, D, F, H2, H3, H4 (family of H2 or H3), J, M, P, Q and TN.
