CCNY / Stanford Summer Research Program in the Humanities

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

The Division of Humanities & the Arts announces the annual summer research program for City College students. The CCNY-Stanford Summer Program is designed for students considering graduate school in one of the Humanities disciplines.

Ten City College Humanities & the Arts students will spend eight weeks on the beautiful campus of Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. Stanford will match each CCNY student with a Stanford faculty member who will mentor the student's research project. Students will participate in a weekly seminar on the graduate application process and about research in the Humanities.

A free Graduate Record Exam (GRE) preparation course will be provided for those interested.

The students who are selected will receive up to $600 in travel expenses, room & board on the Stanford campus, a bicycle to commute on campus, and a $3,000 stipend.*

Students must have junior, senior, or graduate-level status, a 3.2 GPA, and a letter of recommendation from a full-time City College faculty member.

Previous students were in the following programs:

Art History (MA), English (BA),
Spanish (MA), History (BA/MA),
Philosophy (BA)
