

DANIELLE AND LARRY NYMAN
FAMILY PROJECT AWARD

Application Deadline: April 30, 2020 (5 p.m.)

Two annual prizes for “work that meaningfully illustrates family life in all its complexity.” Sample themes include: how families cope with the normal challenges of development across the lifespan, such as becoming a committed couple; the birth and growth of children; the death of an elder; how families handle adversity and oppression; styles of communication among family members; the impact of culture on families; and how families are affected by social, economic, and political events in the larger society. Matriculated baccalaureate or master’s degree students are eligible to apply. Entries will be judged by a faculty committee.

First Prize: $2,000

Second Prize: $1,000
