

Fall 2020

Dear Prospective Applicant:

The CUNY School of Medicine/Sophie Davis Biomedical Education Program is one of the most unique medical education programs in the United States. The program brings together talented and committed high school graduates of diverse ethnic, cultural and economic backgrounds to prepare them for careers as physicians. It is an accelerated combined degree program with a specially designed curriculum where qualified students receive the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree after completing an integrated 3 year education. Students then transition into the CUNY School of Medicine to obtain their Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) from The City College of New York. This unique curriculum includes:

- Specialized undergraduate and clinical curriculum.
- Clinical training with our affiliates, St. Barnabas & Staten Island University Hospitals, Harlem Hospital, Jacobi/North Central Bronx and Forest Hills Hospitals.
- Academic and personal support services to develop skills and abilities requisite for the successful physician.
- Affordable cost plus financial assistance for those who qualify so that finances are not a barrier to a medical career.

We are very interested in meeting you and answering your questions about the program and admissions procedures. Attached is an invitation to our Annual Open House which will be virtual this year. Also this year, due to COVID 19, SAT and ACT scores are optional, but not required.

The Sophie Davis/CUNY School of Medicine application is available through your customized Sophie Davis VIP Page. Become a SD VIP at <http://med.cuny.edu> click VIP Login. The deadline to apply is December 30, 2020. Make certain that you also complete the general CUNY Application on the CUNY Portal by December 30, 2020. Applicants to the Macaulay Honors College should file a Macaulay Honors College application and a Sophie Davis application only.

Feel free to call us at (212) 650-7718 if you have questions about admissions. You can visit the website at <http://med.cuny.edu> to create your own customized Sophie Davis VIP page to receive the most updated information about the program and admission.

Sincerely,

Jermold J. Ernes
