OVERVIEW OF THE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT PROCESS

Performance Planning: Goals and Developmental Activities

Administering the Performance Evaluation

Preparation for Performance Evaluation: Appraise Performance

Provide Consistent Feedback During Rating Period

Preparation for Performance Evaluation: Employee Input
Performance Management is essential for an organization’s success and one of a manager’s most important responsibilities.

Performance Management can be a highly personal and uncomfortable process for supervisors and employees.
POTENTIAL OUTCOMES OF EFFECTIVE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

1. Employees are clear about their job responsibilities and expectations

2. Increased individual and group productivity

3. Communication between employees and supervisors is optimized

4. Employee development is enhanced through effective feedback and coaching
5. Performance goals are aligned with the College’s and departments’ goals and strategic plans

6. Supports operational decisions, (e.g., promotions, merit increases)

7. Provides documentation of performance for corrective measures

8. Serves as a basis for separation.
Performance Planning: Goals and Developmental Activities
PERFORMANCE PLANNING...

Areas to be addressed with Employee

1. Performance Expectations
2. Goals for the rating period
3. Professional Development
When determining Performance Expectations consider the following –

1. Departmental Goals
2. Employee’s job description (JD)
3. Review day to day work [should be consistent with the JD and the departmental goals]
4. What motivates the employee to come to work everyday?
5. Review Performance Evaluation Objectives
   a. Competency Categories
   b. Rating Period: Annual, Semester, Quarterly (Classified only)

Goals –

1. Work to be achieved within the rating period

2. How an employee is expected to go about performing their job within the rating period

Some guidelines for ESTABLISHING Goals with your employee:

1. Goals must clearly define the end results to be accomplished

2. To the extent possible, goals should have a direct and obvious link to organizational success factors or goals

3. Goals should be difficult, but achievable, to motivate performance

4. Goals should be set in no more than three areas – too many different goals at once will impede success

5. Goals should be S.M.A.R.T. [Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant & Time-Bound]
Examples of Goals –

1. Decrease student attrition by 10% in the school year

2. Increase student participation in workshops by 10% in the Fall semester and 15% in the Spring semester

3. Present data on the end of semester reports in Excel format

4. Improve work order completion rate to a minimum of one work order per day

5. Plan end of semester gala w/entertainment via Zoom for 200 participants

Examples of Goals –

1. Connect with stakeholders (i.e., students, peers, senior administration, etc.) by listening to their needs and clearly and effectively sharing information;

2. Avoid confrontational interactions with direct reports, supervisors

3. Respond timely (within 24 hours) to communications (telephone, email) from internal and external stakeholders
Professional Development

1. Hard and soft skills developmental activities planned for the employee during the rating period;

2. Requirements and developmental areas to pursue in preparation for advancement.

3. Professional Development may occur through experiential activities at work and/or opportunities outside of work (e.g., training classes)

Some Resources for Training Classes:

1. CUNY’s Office for Professional Development and Learning Management (PDLM)
   https://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/hr/professional-development-learning-management/;

2. City College’s Continuing and Professional Studies (CPS)
   https://www.ccny.cuny.edu/cps;

3. NYC Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS)
   https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/citywide-training-and-development.page;
Examples of Professional Development Plans –

1. To assist you with improving in the performance areas identified (more effective supervision of staff & submitting assignments timely), weekly one-on-one meetings w/supervisor will be scheduled. The meetings will allow your supervisor to monitor your work more closely and provide you with more immediate feedback when issues arise.

2. To help address CUNY Central’s new requirement that the department submit its reports in MS Excel format and to provide you an opportunity to take on more Data management responsibilities, we agreed that you will attend CPS’s intensive MS Excel training in the summer semester. Upon completion of the training you will responsible for generating reports for the department and preparing them in accordance with CUNY Central’s specifications.
Examples of Professional Development Plans –

3. Your performance continues to be exceptional. In response to your request to take on more management responsibilities, it was agreed that for 6-months, you will assume responsibility for managing the assignments and the review and signing of timesheets for the department’s college assistants and work-study students. During the 6-month period we will hold one-on-one meetings bi-weekly to assess your progress and provide any needed support.
Goals and Professional Development activities should be aligned with the needs of the department.

Goals and Professional Development activities should be reasonable and prepared in consultation with the employee to ensure their commitment to achieving them.
PROVIDING CONSISTENT FEEDBACK

Provide Consistent Feedback During Rating Period
PROVIDING CONSISTENT FEEDBACK...

1. Employees are subject to day to day supervision

2. On-going feedback during the rating period generally equates to fewer surprises when the performance evaluation is administered

3. When providing feedback about performance it should be: Provided on an on-going basis (Daily, if nec.); Timely (Critical for Immediate Improvement); Done in private (Counseling); Non-adversarial (Coaching); Two-way communication (Collaborative)

4. Feedback can be provided Verbally, via E-mail or Letter/Memorandum
Examples of On-Going Feedback – VERBAL/EMAIL

Subject: Job Well Done

“I am pleased to inform you that the Vice President was pleased with the way you handled student registration this week. Additionally, several students remarked about your attentiveness and professionalism when addressing their needs. Thank you and keep up the good work.”
Examples of On-Going Feedback – EMAIL

Subject: Concerns with Annual Report

“I have finished my review of the annual report that you submitted yesterday and it is rife with typographical errors and incorrect information. Please see my edits and make the appropriate corrections immediately as it is due to the Vice President tomorrow morning. I note that this is not the first time that I have had to bring this issue to your attention. Also troubling is that you were given the correct information to include in the current report last week. We will discuss this matter at our next one-on-one meeting. Please come prepared with ideas on how you can address this issue in the future.”
Examples of On-Going Feedback – Letter / Memorandum

RE: Lateness

“This letter summarizes our discussion about your lateness to work. Today you were 15 minutes late to work. Additionally over the past 3 weeks you reported late to work 8 times. I advised you that your lateness creates coverage issues within the department. You informed me that you have had some unanticipated child care issues and that you hope to have them worked out by next week. I advised you that in the future you must communicate these matters to me in advance. Doing so gives us an opportunity to troubleshoot ways to help you and help us minimize the impact your lateness has on the operation.

I also suggested that you consult with HR about child care support options. We agreed that I would follow-up with you in 2 weeks to assess your improvement in this area.”
PREPARING THE PERFORMANCE EVALUATION: EMPLOYEE INPUT / APPRAISE PERFORMANCE
PREPARING FOR PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

EMPLOYEE INPUT

1. In preparation for the performance evaluation, collecting the employee’s input about their performance involves them in the process of assessing their work. This enhances ownership and acceptance by the employee.

2. Employee input may be captured through one of the following:
   a) Self-Evaluation
   b) Statements of Accomplishments
APPRAISE PERFORMANCE

When appraising an employee’s performance over a rating period, you want to include the total overall performance. To help ensure that this occurs the following items should be considered:

1. Performance Planning Objectives reviewed at the beginning of the rating period (i.e., Performance Expectations, Goals/Behavioral Expectations, Professional Development)

2. On-going feedback that was provided

3. Employee Input received
Measuring performance in the flexible work environment

Types of Flexible Work Arrangements

Flexible Scheduling

❖ Flexible Hours – modifying start and end times of regular daily hours
❖ Condensed Work Week – working the same number of hours per work week in fewer days

Telecommuting – working from home* or an alternate CUNY location for all or part of a regular work week.

(* Home is where the heart is...)

Parameters for Flexible Work Arrangements

❖ Schedule start times must be between 7:00 AM to 10:00 AM
❖ Schedule end times must be between 3:00 PM to 7:00 PM
❖ Condensed work week (35-hour week over a minimum of 4 days with varying day off)
❖ Establishment of minimum on premise staffing required by department/area

EXPECTATIONS

In either arrangement – flex scheduling or telecommuting – supervisors/managers and staff must ensure continuity of departmental operations.

It is understood that during these times work is being accomplished in different ways. Notwithstanding, employees working remotely are subject to the same performance standards, for their position, that were in place prior to telecommuting.

There is no expectation that evaluations be done in person, only that they be done (See March 20, 2020, email from College Counsel)
Some considerations, when engaging in the performance evaluation process with employees during these times of COVID-19:

❖ The impact COVID-19 had on employees professionally and personally can be identified

❖ Additional clarity on support options can be explored (HR consult, may be necessary)

❖ How goals established in the last evaluation period were impacted by COVID-19?

❖ New goals should consider the current circumstances to help ensure success for employees and their departments.

❖ Telework arrangements can be reviewed and revised as needed (see HR for current form)

❖ Departmental expectations can be reinforced

❖ Opportunities to help motivate employees through training and development can be identified (e.g., Zoom or Microsoft Teams training).

Additional considerations/reminders for managers supervising employees who are teleworking:

❖ Review CCNY/CUNY’s Telework Notice Form with employees to ensure that they are clear (see HR for current form)

❖ Review technology needs and resources and ensure that employees know how to access technical support. (See Information Technology for any assistance)

❖ Confirm and remind employees to adhere to agreed upon work schedules

❖ Develop a remote work plan (e.g., What routine duties cannot be fulfilled remotely and how does this impact operations and stakeholders? How can impact be minimized? Perhaps an on-site presence is needed on limited basis?)

❖ Make a communication and accountability plan to remain connected and in sync with employees (e.g., how often should work updates be sent; how quickly should employees respond to supervisor, colleagues or other stakeholders.)

Now What?

It’s time to Administer the Performance Evaluation!
OVERVIEW OF THE PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT PROCESS

Administering the Performance Evaluation
ADMINISTERING THE HEO PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Administering the HEO Performance Evaluation is a Two Step Process*:

1. Evaluation Conference

2. Conference Memorandum (i.e., Performance Evaluation)

* The Two-Step Process is pursuant to the PSC/CUNY Agreement.
STEP 1) Evaluation Conference

a. Meeting between only the supervisor and employee

b. The supervisor may bring notes to inform the discussion but not the completed performance evaluation form

c. Important that supervisor elicit employee feedback

d. Important that total performance for the rating period is discussed

e. Desirable performance noted

f. Areas of improvement identified

g. Goals and Plan for Professional Development established

STEP 2) Performance Evaluation

a. Prepared after the Evaluation Conference

b. Summarizes the Evaluation Conference discussion inclusive of the employee’s comments/feedback

c. Given to the employee within 10 working days following the Evaluation Conference

d. The employee provided 10 days to review, sign and return to their supervisor.

e. The employee may submit written comments (rebuttal) to be included with the completed performance evaluation any time during the 10 working day period or any time thereafter

- Preferably once each semester but at least once each year
- Applicable to HEO series w/13.3b status
- Meeting between only supervisor and employee
- Evaluation document issued to employee w/in 10 days of meeting
- Description of document and rating standards

Supervisors’ Instructions

Preferably once each semester, but at least once each year, employees in the HEO series are required to have an evaluation conference with the chairperson or supervisor to be designated by the appropriate dean or President. Please note that no parties other than the evaluator and the employee are permitted to attend the conference. At the conference, the employee’s total performance and professional progress shall be reviewed for the year. Following this conference, the evaluator shall prepare a record of the evaluation discussion in memorandum form for inclusion in the employee’s personnel file. The evaluation memorandum shall reflect both the employee’s and the supervisor’s input at the conference. A copy of the memorandum shall be given to the employee within ten (10) working days following the conference.

While effective evaluation of job performance is an ongoing process, this form is to be used only for evaluations conducted pursuant to Article 13.3(b) of the PSC/CUNY collective bargaining agreement. A performance evaluation is intended to encourage the improvement of individual professional performance and to provide a basis for future personnel decisions.

Step 1: Core Competencies

A competency is the capability to apply or use a set of related knowledge, skills, and abilities required to successfully perform critical work functions or tasks in a defined work setting.

Identify and comment upon core competencies that relate to the key responsibilities of the employee’s job. (Attach employee’s job description, if available.) You may use some or all of the competencies listed on the form. If the listed competency is not appropriate, either replace it with an appropriate job competency or enter “not applicable.” Comments should reference examples of the employee’s work on specific assignments.

Step 2: Goals and Objectives

Rate and discuss the employee’s performance on his or her prior year’s goals and set goals for the upcoming year.

Step 3: Professional Development Plan

Indicate actions that will be taken by the employee or supervisor to support the goals indicated in Step 2 above or to address any weaknesses identified in Step 1.

Step 4: Overall performance rating

Place an X in the box or circle the rating that indicates your assessment of the employee’s overall performance during the applicable period. The following rating definitions have been established to provide an equitable evaluation process, improve communication, define performance expectations, improve job productivity, and summarize job performance.

Rating Scale/Standards

- Level 4 / SE Surpasses Expectations
  - Work performance is consistently superior to the standards of performance. Employee surpasses expectations due to exceptionally high quality of work performed in all essential areas of responsibility, resulting in an overall quality of work that was superior and either 1) completed major goal or project, or 2) made an exceptional or unique contribution in support of unit, department, or University objectives.

- Level 3 / S Satisfactory
  - Work performance consistently meets the standards of performance. Employee achieves expectations in all essential areas of responsibility, and the quality of work overall was commendable.

- Level 2 / NI Needs Improvement
  - Work performance does not consistently meet the standards of performance. Serious effort is needed to improve performance. A professional development plan to improve performance, including timelines, should be outlined.

- Level 1 / U Unsatisfactory
  - Work performance is inadequate and inferior to the standards of performance. Performance at this level cannot be allowed to continue. Significant improvement is needed in one or more important areas. A professional development plan to correct performance, including timelines, should be outlined.
HEO form Page 2 review:

4. Section A – Competency categories 1-8 applicable to all HEO titles

5. Section A – However, competencies 9-11 are applicable only to HEA and HEO titles

A. Competency Evaluation

Performance Rating Definitions

DOES NOT MEET EXPECTATIONS (DNME)
The employee's performance did not meet one or more of the attainable standards of the task and consistently fails to perform the duties and responsibilities of the job description. The employee's own lack of effort or of required knowledge, skills and abilities was responsible; but also was not compliant with CUNY attendance and lateness policies. A re-evaluation is required after three months.

MEETS EXPECTATIONS (ME)
The employee's work performance satisfies all the standards of the job tasks; the employee is dependable and consistent in performing all assigned duties and responsibilities. The employee is compliant with CUNY attendance and lateness policies.

EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS (EE)
The employee’s work performance is consistently at a high standard and is better than that required by the job tasks; or has merely attained the standards but the circumstances under which the employee carried out the task were so difficult that superior effort, knowledge, skills or abilities were needed to attain the normal standards.
