

The Committee on Inclusive Excellence for the Division of Interdisciplinary Studies at the Center for Worker Education invites you to join us to celebrate Black History Month 2022!

Cyrus McQueen, Tweeting Truth to Power
Thursday, February 17, 6-7:30pm (Zoom)

We kick off our Black History Month celebration with Cyrus McQueen, comedian, cultural critic, and author of Tweeting Truth to Power: Chronicling Our Caustic Politics, Crazy Times, and the Great Black and White Divide (see <https://www.cyrusmcqueen.com/>). Please register here: <https://tinyurl.com/bde44ea4>

Eve L. Ewing, Interview and Discussion
February 28, 2022, 6-7:30pm (Zoom)

Our Black History Month celebration continues with an interview and discussion with poet and sociologist Eve L. Ewing. Her research is focused on racism, social inequality, and urban policy, and the impact of these forces on American public schools and the lives of young people. She is a prolific writer across multiple genres and will join us to discuss Ghosts in the Schoolyard: Racism & School Closings on Chicago's South Side; her poetry collection, 1919; her children's book, Maya and the Robot; and her work for Marvel Comics (see <https://eveewing.com/>). Please register here: <https://tinyurl.com/3jpuskzk>

photo credit Nolis Anderson