Student Name (Last, First): _____ Date: _____

Major: _____ Expected Graduation: _____

Student E-mail: _____

The Human Rights Studies minor provides students with an understanding of human rights philosophy, norms, law, institutions, and practices. The core courses provide a conceptual and theoretical grounding of the field along with a critical awareness of fundamental twenty-first century challenges to human dignity that transcends national boundaries. The interdisciplinary curriculum will be drawn from the fields of Political Science, History, Sociology, Philosophy, Anthropology, International Studies, and Literature. Combined with their related majors, students will graduate with a substantive grasp of human rights, particularly in the context of their major fields.

To complete a minor in Human Rights Studies, student must take a total of 15 to 18 credits distributed as follows:
