

COMBATING DEHUMANIZATION
SERIES: PART 3

Anti-Black Racism &
Other Forms of Discrimination Based on Race & Color

JANUARY 30, 2025

12:30PM

NAC Room 1/203

*Light Refreshments Will Be Served

Provides an historical context for race and color-based discrimination & how it has impacted the lives of New Yorkers, institutions, & the delivery of services and resources in NYC. The program educates New Yorkers on their rights & protections against discrimination under the Human Rights Law.

Participants analyze concepts related to race & color, learn about efforts & resistance to combat racism & ways to become the voices for social and racial justice.
