

How does your personality affect your career?

Discover Who You Are—and Where You're Going.

Join Melissa Oden (Director of Undergraduate Advising for H&A) and Marisa Hollywood (Director of Academic Internships) for a dynamic workshop exploring how your Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) can help you better understand yourself and guide you toward careers that align with your personality.

In the first part of the workshop, Melissa will introduce the fundamentals of the Myers-Briggs framework, helping you uncover your unique personality type. Following that, Marisa will provide an overview of our H&A Internship Program, sharing insights on how to identify internship opportunities that are a great fit for your personality.

Thursday, May 8
12:30-2 PM
NAC 5/225.
Pizza lunch will be served.
