

The City College Jewish Studies Program Presents:

Emporialism

DEPARTMENT STORE FICTIONS AND THE POLITICS OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

Join us as Dr. Amr Kamal discusses his book which examines the phenomenon of emporialism, or the convergence between the spaces and imaginaries of empires and emporia in the context of a modern Mediterranean divided among the British, French, and Ottoman empires.

Dr. Amr Kamal received his PhD in Comparative Literature, from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He is an associate professor of French and Arabic at CCNY. His research interests include 19th and 20th century French literature, Francophone literature from the Mashreq (especially Egypt, Lebanon and Syria), Mediterranean Studies, Human Geography and material culture.
