

FILM SCREENING

The Right Track true survivor journeys

April 27 at 7 PM | Room 7-53
Division of Interdisciplinary Studies at the Center for Worker Education
25 Broadway, 7th Floor | Valid ID required

Through the eyes of those who live it, this documentary spotlights the fight to end sex trafficking and human exploitation across North America. At its heart is the Survivor Model—a transformative approach that decriminalizes prostituted individuals while imposing strict penalties on pimps, traffickers, and sex buyers.

Supported by:

