The Ephebic Oath

Frank J. Sciame Jr. '74
Board Chair, The Foundation for City College

& Shawn Chin-Chance '05
President, CCNY Alumni Association

We men and women
graduating from The City College of New York, do this day, after the manner of the Athenian youths of old about to enter public life take this oath of devotion to the City of New York:

we will never bring disgrace to our city
by any act of dishonesty or cowardice
nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks;

we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city
both alone and with many;

we will revere and obey the city's laws,
and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence
in those about us who are prone to annul them
and set them at naught;

we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty;

and thus, in all these ways, we will strive to transmit this city and not only not less but greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Vince Boudreau
President

Dear Member of the class of 2026,

Please accept my heartfelt congratulations on your graduation day. For those of us who have worked with you, it is deeply gratifying to stand at your side at this moment and watch as you move from our campus into the wider world.

We may never fully know the different pathways you took to get here, or all the ways your time at City College has shaped you. But we do know this: in graduating from this historic institution, you join generations who came here to remake their lives and left prepared to help remake the world. You are heirs to that legacy, and I am confident you will carry it forward with distinction.

Here, we have sought to build a community grounded in ethical purpose—one that values diverse perspectives and asks you to imagine a better world and how to bring it into being. You have been called upon to apply your intellect, ambition, and creativity to the most pressing questions of our time.

You graduate into a world of real complexity and urgency. Global conflicts continue to test our shared humanity. Advances in artificial intelligence are transforming how we live and work, raising profound opportunities and ethical questions. And the accelerating effects of climate change remind us of our responsibility to one another and to the future.

In such a moment, your education calls you not to retreat, but to engage—to approach differences with curiosity, to meet disagreement with reason, and to respond to others with empathy and care. These are not abstract ideals, but essential tools for the world you now enter.

Since 1847, City College has opened pathways of opportunity and strengthened the civic life of New York City and beyond. Many of you are the first in your family to earn a college degree. In doing so, you expand what is possible for those who will follow, affirming education as a powerful force for mobility, dignity, and hope. As you leave us, trust your education and the habits of mind you have developed here. Hold on to your willingness to ask difficult questions, to listen carefully, and to think with clarity and purpose.

Draw on the resilience that brought you to this day.

We have planted a vision of a more just and generous society. It is now yours to cultivate—with courage, integrity, and care.

You take your place among the generations who came before you, as stewards of a proud tradition and authors of what comes next.

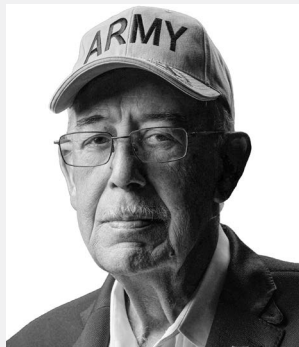

Know that we have been honored by your presence and inspired by what you will accomplish.

With my warmest congratulations,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "V. Boudreau". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

VALEDICTORIAN & SALUTATORIAN

Shabnam Pahrand
2026 Valedictorian

Born in New York to Afghan immigrant parents, CCNY's valedictorian, Shabnam Pahrand, has been motivated by the experiences of Afghan women who were denied access to education. At the Macaulay Honors College at CCNY, she pursued a double major in philosophy and political science in the Colin Powell School for Civic and Global Leadership.

Pahrand is a Colin Powell School International Human Rights Fellow and a Stanford Summer Research Fellow. She prioritizes research-driven learning, completing a Macaulay Honors capstone project examining the role of poetry in activist movements, and a project focused on strengthening civic engagement at CUNY, which included proposing a grant to the Teagle Foundation and the Macaulay board. Philosophy professor Nickolas Pappas ranks her among the top five students he has taught in more than 30 years at CCNY.

She interns with the Afghan Support Network, mentoring newly arrived Afghan refugee students through the U.S. college application process. She has also interned with the legal department at Food Bank for NYC and volunteers with Riverside Immigration Services mentoring new immigrants in English.

After graduation, Pahrand plans to pursue a Global Peace Fellowship or Fulbright before applying to law school to pursue a career in human rights law.

Sayyid Yobhel Vasquez Rodriguez
2026 Salutatorian

New York-born Vasquez Rodriguez moved to Mexico City as an infant when his father, a Peruvian-born surgeon, and his mother, a Venezuelan orthodontist, relocated for work, instilling in him an early appreciation for service and medicine.

Admitted to CCNY, he deferred enrollment to complete Navy basic training in Great Lakes, Illinois, later specializing as a Corpsman at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and qualifying as a field medic alongside Marines at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, graduating with honors and earning accelerated advancement for outstanding performance.

At CCNY, Vasquez Rodriguez pursued a BS in biology, graduating summa cum laude. In the Computational Biophysics Laboratory, he conducted research on protein-membrane interactions and co-authored three peer-reviewed articles, two published in the Biophysical Journal and the Journal of Physical Chemistry.

"How many have produced three first-author papers in their undergraduate studies? This is extremely rare, not only at CCNY but in the entire country!" said his mentor, Professor Themis Lazaridis.

Vasquez Rodriguez has volunteered as a medical scribe and Spanish interpreter at a primary care clinic serving a large Latino population in Queens since 2024. He is applying to MD-PhD programs with the goal of practicing oncology and conducting cancer research.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION'S MESSAGE

Shawn Chin-Chance '05
President, CCNY
Alumni Association

Dear 2026 Graduates of The City College of New York,

Congratulations on reaching this extraordinary milestone.

Each of you arrives at this moment from different points in your lives, and what connects you all is something greater—this evolving experiment on a hill we call The City College of New York. It is grounded in an enduring promise: to educate the masses—the poor, the immigrant, and the underserved—so that tomorrow is better than today.

As you prepare to cross the stage, with academic colors of lavender, yellow, blue, brown, white, and orange reflecting your preparedness, you enter a world that may feel uncertain. Here is what I want you to know: you are not entering this world unprepared. You are entering it as changemakers, catalysts, and disruptors of what no longer serves the greater good.

Just like you, generations of City College graduates faced similar uncertainties, but they carved a way forward where none existed—creating opportunities for those who followed. Now, that responsibility—and that opportunity—belongs to you.

You are now equipped not only with knowledge, but with purpose: a purpose to stand for what is right when it is hard, and to challenge inequity when it is inconvenient. You have a responsibility to innovate and reimagine a world that is more inclusive and more humane.

As Barack Obama once reminded us:

“One voice can change a room. And if it can change a room, it can change a city. If you can change a city, it can change a state. If you can change a state, it can change a nation. And if it can change a nation, it can change the world.”

Your voice matters. Your actions matter. Your leadership matters.

And now, with your assignments completed, papers submitted, and exams behind you, your true work begins—the work of strengthening communities and leaving every space better than you found it. For more than 175 years, graduates like you have sustained a powerful community rooted in a simple idea: City College alumni have a responsibility to one another and to the generations that follow.

The Alumni Association stands ready to support, uplift, and celebrate you—not only for what you achieve, but for how you choose to lead and serve. The Alumni Association is not separate from you—it is you. So as you turn this page and begin anew, move forward with courage and conviction. Be daring in your ideas and intentional in your impact.

And never forget: you are part of a story shaped by individuals who refused to accept the world as it was, and instead worked to make it what it should be.

Congratulations to the Class of 2026.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

This year The City College of New York celebrates the 179th anniversary of its founding. The need for an institution like The City College was recognized as early as 1847, when the State Legislature authorized a local referendum to determine whether a public college should be established in the City of New York; at the time, the city had a population of a half-million people and two private colleges, which had high tuition and only 247 pupils. The vote was overwhelmingly in favor of the proposition, and the Free Academy was established in a new building at Lexington Avenue and 23rd Street. The doors to its first entering class opened in January, 1849, and a class of seventeen young men graduated in 1853; with friends and family members, that first commencement was too large for the chapel at the Free Academy, so it was celebrated in Biblo's beer garden.

In 1866 the name of the Free Academy was changed by legislative act to The College of the City of New York. Since then, it has been called CCNY—an unofficial designation the College retained even after its name was again changed in 1929 to The City College. Students, alumni and friends call the College, simply, "City." The college colors, lavender and black, were chosen by the student body in 1866. The beaver, symbol of intelligence, industry and determination, was voted to be the College's official athletics' mascot by a student-wide poll in 1934.

The governing body of the College, originally the Board of Education, was replaced in 1900 by a separate Board of Trustees appointed by the Mayor. In 1926, the Board of Higher Education was established to govern both City and Hunter College (founded in 1870), and subsequently the entire City University system, established in 1961. After primary responsibility for funding the University became that of New York State rather than New York City, an enlarged Board of Trustees, appointed by the Governor and the Mayor, assumed control in 1980.

The City College of New York, originally limited to undergraduate programs in classical and practical courses of study, has continually enlarged both the breadth and the depth of its offerings. Today it offers more than sixty undergraduate programs and majors and more than forty graduate programs, including PhD programs in six disciplines.

The City College moved to its present location in 1907, and now occupies a thirty-five acre Neo-Gothic and modern campus on historic St. Nicholas Heights. It is really a small university, with a College of Liberal Arts and Science and four professional schools—the Bernard and Anne Spitzer School of Architecture, the Grove School of Engineering, School of Education, and the CUNY School of Medicine (formerly the Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education).

The City College is the nation's flagship institution of public higher education, predating the midwestern state and land-grant colleges by two decades. It is the number 2 college in the nation with the greatest success of ensuring the social mobility of our students. For almost 180 years it has been a primary avenue of advancement for generations of New Yorkers who might not have had the chance to attend college. Today it continues to fulfill the aim of its founder, Townsend Harris, who said: "Open the doors to all—Let the children of the rich and the poor take their seats together and know of no distinction save that of industry, good conduct and intellect."

ABOUT COMMENCEMENT

The City College of New York, originally called The Free Academy, held its first Commencement in 1853 with a graduating class of 17. This year, we will celebrate the 173rd graduating class, which corrects for how the College previously counted the number of graduations since 1847.

The entire City College community wishes all members of the Class of 2026 the success and happiness they so richly deserve.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO SEYMOUR '65 AND LAURIE STERNBERG FOR THEIR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR COMMENCEMENT ACTIVITIES.

ATTENTION TO ALL GRADUATING STUDENTS

It's important to note that participation in this year's commencement ceremony doesn't signify graduation. You remain subject to the code of conduct until you officially receive your diploma.

The City College of New York, founded on a vision of access to excellence, educates thousands of students each year and encourages civic and robust debate, respectful dissent, and thoughtful inquiry.

Consistent with this commitment, City College supports academic freedom and convenes conversations representing multiple perspectives throughout the year.

The views expressed at events are those of the individual speaker(s) and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the college.

All participants are expected to treat others with respect and consideration, uphold personal and professional integrity, and comply with all applicable College policies and venue rules.

THE ALMA MATER

Lavender, My Lavender

Sturdy sons of City College
Trusty hearts and mighty hands
Rally where your streaming banner
With its dauntless emblem stands.
Send a cheer to heaven ringing
Filled with love and fond acclaim
Faith and pride in Alma Mater
And her never dying fame.

CHORUS:

*Lavender, my Lavender
Lavender, my Lavender
On the fields of life's endeavor
Bound by ties that naught can sever
Hail we Alma Mater ever!
Lavender, my Lavender.*

Daughters fair of City College
We are wise and we are strong.
We will bring you pride and glory
With our life's unending song.
All will join us in our singing
Songs of love and fond acclaim
Faith and pride in Alma Mater
And her never dying fame.

CHORUS:

*Lavender, my Lavender
Lavender, my Lavender
On the fields of life's endeavor
Bound by ties that naught can sever
Hail we Alma Mater ever!
Lavender, my Lavender.
Lavender, my Lavender.*
