Post-Conditional Offer Verifications and Checks

Employment Eligibility and Identity Documents Verification

Newly hired employees must complete Section 1 of the Dept. of Homeland Security/U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services I-9 Form no later than the first day of employment. CUNY is required to verify evidence of identity and employment authorization within 3 business days of the employee's first day of employment.

Verification of Credentials

Academic and professional credentials, as submitted will be verified by the college.

Criminal Background Check

As a candidate with a conditional offer of employment, you must provide criminal background information. For some positions, a criminal history report may also be required. CUNY will consider your history in accordance with Article 23-A of the New York State Correction Law.

A conviction record will not necessarily disqualify you from the position for which you are applying. However, failure to provide truthful responses will, when discovered, automatically result in the withdrawal of the conditional offer of employment or your termination, if employed.

Before any adverse action is taken based on a previous criminal conviction, CUNY will

- provide a written Article 23-A analysis to the candidate in a form determined by the New York Commission on Human Rights (NYCCHR), together with supporting documents which formed the basis and reasons for the adverse action; and
- after providing the candidate with the required documentation, allow him or her at least three business days to respond and, during that time, hold the position open for the candidate.

Credit History Check, Medical Certification, Medical Examination, Drug Screening, and Physical Agility and Fitness Assessment

For some positions, a credit history, medical examination, drug test, and/or physical fitness assessment may be required as a condition of employment. CUNY processes all information per applicable laws.

Accommodation required to perform Essential Job Functions

It is the University's policy to provide reasonable accommodations, when appropriate, to individuals with disabilities, individuals observing religious practices, employees who have pregnancy or child-birth related medical conditions, or employees who are victims of domestic violence/stalking/sex offenses.

If you require an accommodation to perform the essential job functions for the position for which you have received a conditional job offer of employment, please contact the HR Director at the college or unit where you have received the conditional offer of employment.
