

The City College of New York (CCNY)
Grove School of Engineering
DEPARTMENT OF BIOMEDICAL ENGINEERING
EMPLOYER SURVEY

Program Educational Objectives	Strongly Agree	Moderately Agree	Neutral	Moderately Disagree	Strongly Disagree	N/A
The CCNY BME graduate demonstrates an ability to apply mathematics, science and engineering principles in the development of useful biomedical products and processes.
The CCNY BME graduate demonstrates a thorough preparation in mathematics, science and engineering as a foundation for advanced study in graduate school or medical school.
The CCNY BME graduate demonstrates an ability to communicate effectively in a multidisciplinary environment and to people of diverse cultural backgrounds.
The CCNY BME graduate demonstrates professional and ethical behavior, and the use of their engineering skills for the benefit of society.

Please provide the following information about yourself and your company (optional):

Name:

Position:

Company/Organization:

Company/Organization Address:

Number of employees:

Number of engineers:

Number of CCNY BME graduates in department/company:

Thank you for your interest in and support of this effort.