LASA 50th Anniversary Conference
May 27-30, 2016

Visit The Classical and Modern Languages & Literatures Department at CCNY Booth!

Place: Americas Hall 1 (Book/Authors Presentation Area)
Booth 700. New York Hilton, 1335 Avenue of the Americas

CCNY’s Classical and Modern Languages & Literatures Department will be represented at Booth 700 at the Latin American Studies Association’s 50th Anniversary Conference. The CMLL booth will highlight the activities of the department’s M.A. program in Spanish and of Review: Literature and Arts of the Americas, published by Routledge in association with CCNY.

M.A. Program in Spanish

The Master Program in Spanish at CCNY prepares students in the areas of Hispanic Literatures and Cultures. Upon completion of our M.A., students may apply to Doctoral Programs around the U.S. Every fall Our Department celebrates the Cátedra Mario Vargas Llosa, led by a specialist on the subject. The requirements to complete our M.A. Program are: A Comprehensive Exam, an Essay in-lieu of Thesis, and Reading Proficiency in a foreign language.

Contact the Program Director, Prof. Angel Estévez, at aestevez@ccny.cuny.edu / (212) 650-6377 and visit our website: http://www.ccny.cuny.edu/Fll/graduate.cfm
Follow us on Facebook: Masters-in-Spanish-City College-of-New-York

Review: Literature and Arts of the Americas

Review: Literature and Arts of the Americas is the major U.S. forum for contemporary Latin American and Caribbean writing in English and English translation; it also covers Canadian writing and visual/performing arts in the Americas. Now in its 48th year, Review is currently published by Routledge in association with The City College of New York, CUNY, through its Department of Classical and Modern Languages & Literatures. Review 92/93 (Fall 2016), guest-edited by Elizabeth Lowe, will focus on the Brazilian Backlands in Literature and Arts.

Contact the Editor: Daniel Shapiro, at dshapiro@ccny.cuny.edu / (212) 650-6338
CCNY: https://www.ccny.cuny.edu/cml
Routledge: http://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rev20/current

©2015 Lydia Rubio