Models for Collaboration

In the context of the FIQWS course, instructors may wish to expand upon the assignments that are required for the writing section. Here are some suggestions for how you might proceed. Please note, though, that additional writing assignments will not be responded to and graded by the writing section instructor unless he or she has agreed to take collaborate on the assignment.

Literacy Narrative
- Develop the literacy narrative to encompass the subject of the topic course
- Develop a second narrative assignment following the same guidelines as the literacy narrative

Exploratory Essay
- Expand the assignment so that it asks students to explore the subject in two ways (from a social and scientific perspectives)
- Write assignments using different chapters in the textbook (Annotated Bibliographies (Chapter 15) and Reporting Information (Chapter 12))

Researched Critical Analysis
- Extend the essay to include more sources
- Combine this essay with another assignment from the text (Abstracts (Chapter 14) and Arguing a Position (Chapter 13))
