A student concentrating in two Romance Languages will be required to complete a minimum of twelve advanced courses (300 level or above), including a minimum of six in each language. Among the six advanced courses chosen in each language, two must be from Group A and two must be from Group B. The remaining two courses in each language may be selected from either Group A or B.

A student could concentrate in the French and Italian, in French and Spanish, or in Italian and Spanish. Please consult the templates for each of these majors; complete listings of Group A and B courses for each language can be found in the Bulletin (Please note: complete Italian course listings appear in the Italian concentration template and in the forthcoming Bulletin, but not in the 2009-2011 version of the Bulletin).
