A committed champion of academic excellence, diversity and inclusion, Lynn Appelbaum has dedicated more than 20 years as a professor at CCNY. She has tirelessly built the Ad/PR program and built professional networks for young people—transforming lives and enhancing the industry's efforts to be a more diverse workplace.

We invite you to celebrate her achievements, and pave the way for deserving young people by contributing to an endowed scholarship fund established in her honor.

To Make Your Gift, please call The City College Fund 212 650 6525 or go to www.citycollegefund.org/MCA.htm

Thank you.
