A copy of this form should be brought to each advising session and registration.

New York State Certification Examinations:

  edTPA
  Educating All Students (EAS)
  Academic Literacy Skills Test (ALST)
  Content Specialty Test (CST)

Liberal Arts Prerequisites:

New York State requires all teaching candidates to demonstrate proficiency in a number of liberal arts subject areas, and this information is provided to you on a separate form. Remaining requirements may be satisfied through coursework at accredited institutions (graduate or undergraduate). Please see your advisor for more information. Liberal arts requirements must be met prior to certification and graduation.

Notes regarding undergraduate and graduate transfer credits:

Up to 9 of the 49 credits shown on the reverse side may be waived for equivalent coursework at the undergraduate level. In addition, up to 6 credits in advanced standing may be allowed for graduate work completed within the 3 year period prior to the date at matriculation at institutions other than CCNY, provided the credits did not apply toward another degree and a grade of at least B was earned. Waived and transfer credits require faculty approval. See your academic advisor for more information.

Please see reverse side for courses and graduation requirements.
