

School of Education Office of Clinical Practice Fieldwork & Student Teaching Tel. (212) 650-6915/FAX (212) 650-5379

STUDENT TEACHING OBSERVATION REPORT#4 SECONDARY SPANISH

Part I Background Information

Name of Student Teacher
Date of Observation	Observation #
School	Grade Level
College Supervisor
Cooperating Teacher
Part II Summary of Teaching and Lear	ning Activities
A. Learning Experience(s) was planned	for:
Native Speakers of Spanish
Non-Native Speakers of Spanish

B. Objectives of Lesson:

C. Instructional Activities Observed (including use of technology in planning and/or instruction) Narrative optional

PART III A. Student Teacher's Strengths

B. Suggestions for further Focus and Improvement (Identify one or two components within the three domains that candidate should target for the next lesson. What particular strategies or instructional approaches can she or he employ to improve in these areas?)

C. Overall Rating of this Lesson	(Use 4, 3, 2, 1 to the	e.1 place)
----------------------------------	------------------------	------------

Signature of College Supervisor _____ Date: _____

Signature of Student Teacher	Date:

Date of next Observation _____

Part III (cont.) Danielson Domains 1-3

Domain 1: Planning and Preparation Directions: After reading lesson plans and conducting post-observation conference, circle one performance level for each component based on holistic assessment of critical indicators.

Key: 1 = Baseline (candidate meets few or none of critical indicators); 2 = Approaching Target (candidate meets some critical indicators); 3 = Target (candidate meets most critical indicators); 4 = Exceeds Target (candidate meets all critical indicators)

	Component 1a: Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy	1	!	2	3	4
Candidate's planning demonstrates understanding of key content and concepts in the subject; Candidate's planning demonstrates understanding of key pedagogical concepts and instructional practices in subject-area; Candidate's planning demonstrates understanding of how lesson's content and concepts relate to other content and concepts in t subject. Component Ib: Demonstrating Knowledge of Student 1 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: • Candidate ses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging; • Candidate considers sudent's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; • Candidate considers sudent's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning issues; • Candidate considers sudent's interest, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • Candidate draves on sudents' interest, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • • When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). I 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals sthat are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; when appropriate, outc	Critical Indicators:
Candidate's planning demonstrates understanding of key pedagogical concepts and instructional practices in subject-area; Candidate's planning demonstrates understanding of how lesson's content and concepts relate to other content and concepts in t subject. Component Ib: Demonstrating Knowledge of Student I 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging; • Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; • Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component I: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • • • • • • • • • • <td></td> <td></td> <td>resou</td> <td>rces;</td> <td></td> <td></td>			resou	rces;
Candidate's planning demonstrates understanding of how lesson's content and concepts relate to other content and concepts in tasubject. Component Ib: Demonstrating Knowledge of Student I 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging; • Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; • Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; • Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Formponent Ic: Selecting Instructional Goals I 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: Candidate encludes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. To 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • 1 2 3 4 <t< td=""><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></t<> subject. 1 2 3 4 Component 1b: Demonstrating Knowledge of Student 1 2 3 4 critical Indicators: • Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging; • Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; • Candidate gathers relevant considerations, community makeup); • Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). omponent 1c: Selecting Instructional Goals 1 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, active instructional activities to learning outcomes; • The candidate enging Coherent Instructional activities to learning outcomes; 1 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; 1 2 3 4 </td <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td>
Component Ib: Demonstrating Knowledge of Student 1 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging: Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; Candidate gathers relevant contextual information about students as part of planning process (e.g., cultural/linguistic divers learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup); Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). omponent 1c: Selecting Instructional Goals 1 2 3 4 circical Indicators: Candidate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate scale significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); 1 2 3 4 Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. 3 4 fritical Indicators: Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; 1 2 3 4		s relate to othe	er con	tent an	d conce	epts in th initial Indicators: Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging; Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; Candidate gathers relevant considerations, community makupp); Candidate daves on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Candidate chooses goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen, them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component I: Designing Coherent Instruction I Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning outcomes;	subject.
 Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging; Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; Candidate gathers relevant contextual information about students as part of planning process (e.g. cultural/linguistic divers learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup); Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Tomponent Ie: Selecting Instructional Goals I 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: Candidate chooses goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction I I	Component 1b: Demonstrating Knowledge of Student	1	!	2	3	4
 Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge when planning lessons; Candidate gathers relevant contextual information about students as part of planning process (e.g. cultural/linguistic divers learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup); Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). I 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; The candidate matches instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. I 2 3 4 	ritical Indicators:					1
Candidate gathers relevant contextual information about students as part of planning process (e.g. cultural/linguistic divers learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup); Candidate draws on students ' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Tomponent Ic: Selecting Instructional Goals I Z J Z J Z Z<!--</td--><td>• Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging</td><td>ig;</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td>	• Candidate uses resources and materials in lesson that are appropriately challenging	ig;
learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup); • Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; • When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Yomponent 1: Selecting Instructional Goals 1 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate includes goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. 1 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • • • 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • • • 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • • • 1 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: • • 1 <td>• Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge w</td> <td>hen planning l</td> <td>lessor</td> <td>ıs;</td> <td></td> <td></td>	• Candidate considers student's prior academic experiences, skills, and knowledge w	hen planning l	lessor	ıs;
 Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs to inform his/her planning; When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Tomponent Ic: Selecting Instructional Goals I I<td></td><td>ng process (e.g</td><td>g. cult</td><td>ural/lir</td><td>ıguistic</td><td>e diversi</td>		ng process (e.g	g. cult	ural/lir	ıguistic	e diversi
 When possible, candidate identifies and plans accommodations for students in class who may require different strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). Tomponent Ic: Selecting Instructional Goals I Z J Z Z J Z Z J Z Z J Z J Z J Z J Z Z J Z Z J Z Z J Z <li< td=""><td>learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup);</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></li<>	learning styles, developmental considerations, community makeup);
strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted students). initial Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen, them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Somponent Ie: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 Tritical Indicators: •	Candidate draws on students' interests, cultural backgrounds, strengths, and needs	to inform his/	her pl	lanning	;
imponent 1c: Selecting Instructional Goals 1 2 3 4 iritical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. imponent 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction 1 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: • • 1 2 3 4 omponent 1f: Designing Student Assessments 1 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: • • 1 2 3 4 omponent 1f: Designing Student Assessments 1 2 3 4 <td< td=""><td></td><td>· ·</td><td>uire d</td><td>lifferent</td><td>t</td><td></td></td<>		· ·	uire d	lifferent	t
ritical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Fromponent 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. fomponent If: Designing Student Assessments • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; • Planned assessments for individual students when appropriate;	strategies/support (e.g., students with IEPs, ELL's, struggling readers, gifted stude	nts).
Critical Indicators: Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; I 2 3 4 Orticical Indicators: • The candidate organizes instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; • • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Component 1f: Designing Student Assessments I 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td>
Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. fomponent le: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 ritical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. formponent If: Designing Student Assessments I 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; 1 2 3 4	omponent 1c: Selecting Instructional Goals	1	[2	3	4
Candidate includes goals for developing academic language essential to mastering content or skill objectives; The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. fomponent le: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 ritical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. formponent If: Designing Student Assessments I 2 3 4 ritical Indicators: • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; 1 2 3 4	ritical Indicators:
The instructional goals articulate exactly what students will be expected to learn, not what they will do; Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 Pritical Indicators: • • • I 2 3 4 • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; •		tent or skill ob	inctiv	25.
Candidate chooses goals that are significant for learning in the discipline (or adequately assess the significance of goals chosen them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 Pritical Indicators: • • • I 2 3 4 • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; •				, them); Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction 1 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: • • • • • • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • • • • • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • • • • • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. •	· · ·	•		ance of	facals	choson
Candidate sets instructional goals that are aligned to prior and future lesson goals and the broader goals of the learning unit; When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction 1 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • * * • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • * * * • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • * * * • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. * * * • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. * * * Component 1f: Designing Student Assessments 1 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; • Planned assessments for individual students when appropriate; • > * * * 4		y assess the size	gnijic	απέε θ	gouis	cnosen
When appropriate, outcomes are differentiated, in what- ever way is needed, for individual students. Component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction I 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Component 1f: Designing Student Assessments Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate; 		the broader o	oals a	of the le	parning	unit
Component 1e: Designing Coherent InstructionI234Critical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths.Component If: Designing Student AssessmentsI234Critical Indicators: • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; • Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate;4		-		j		,
Pritical Indicators: • Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; • The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; • The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; • Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; • The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Tomponent 1f: Designing Student Assessments 1 2 3 4 Pritical Indicators: • Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; 9 • Planned assessments include performance expectational outcomes; • Planned assessments for individual students when appropriate;			1	2	3	4
 Resources and materials used in lesson align with learning outcomes; The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Tomponent If: Designing Student Assessments I I I I I I The learning student appropriate The learning 		-	-	-	U	-
 The candidate matches instructional activities to learning outcomes; The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Tomponent 1f: Designing Student Assessments I I
 The sequence of learning activities and time allotments support learning outcomes; Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Component 1f: Designing Student Assessments 1 2 3 4 Critical Indicators: Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate;
 Instructional activities provide opportunity for higher-level thinking and permit student choice when appropriate; The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. Tomponent 1f: Designing Student Assessments 1 2 3 4 Printical Indicators: Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate;
 The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize learning and build on student strengths. The candidate organizes instructional students with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate;
Image: Component 1f: Designing Student AssessmentsI234ritical Indicators:Image: Component Student Assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria;Image: Component Student Assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria;Image: Component Student Assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria;Image: Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes;Image: Component Student Assessments for individual students when appropriate;			-
 Critical Indicators: Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate; 	• The candidate organizes instructional student groups thoughtfully to maximize lear	ning and build	l on si	tudent s	strengtl	is.
 Critical Indicators: Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate; 	Tomponent 1f. Designing Student Assessments	1	1	2	2	1
 Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate; 	omponent 1j: Designing Student Assessments	1	L	2	3	4
 Planned assessments include performance expectations with clearly written criteria; Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate; 	Sritical Indicators:					1
 Planned assessments correspond with instructional outcomes; Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate; 		i :
Plan includes modified assessments for individual students when appropriate;		- /
I an accuracy for many costs accustice to agorn manue to manue decision making by the reacher during instruction		making hy the	teach	ner dur	ino inc	ruction
	- 1 un normaes jornauve assessments designed to injorn minute-to-minute decision-	making by the	16401		ing insi	, action.
	Comments:

Domain 2: The Classroom Environment Directions: After observing lesson and conducting post-observation conference, circle one performance level for each component based on holistic assessment of critical indicators.

Key: 1 = Baseline (candidate meets few or none of critical indicators); 2 = Approaching Target (candidate meets some critical indicators); 3 = Target (candidate meets most critical indicators); 4 = Exceeds Target (candidate meets all critical indicators)

	1	2	3	4
 Critical Indicators: Candidate promotes respectful talk, active listening, and turn taking; Candidate models and promotes politeness and encouragement of students' efforts; Candidate demonstrates knowledge and caring about students' background and lives outside of the classroom; Candidate 's body language expresses caring, builds rapport with students, and make them feel supported; Candidate 's movement and physical proximity communicates awareness and interest in students' performance; Candidate demonstrates fairness, appropriate to the diverse needs of the students in the class.
Component 2b: Establishing a Culture for Learning	1	2	3	4
 Candidate demonstrates passion for subject and value of what is being learned; Candidate seeks to create a "community of learners" where students display/ support intellectual cu Candidate expects and recognizes effort and persistence on the part of students; Candidate expects high quality work and provides models and criteria for producing it; 	 Candidate seeks to create a "community of learners" where students display/ support intellectual curiosity and risk-taking; Candidate expects and recognizes effort and persistence on the part of students; Candidate expects high quality work and provides models and criteria for producing it; Candidate encourages student's to take responsibility for their own learning by independently assessing the quality of their
Component 2c: Managing Classroom Procedures	1	2	3	4
 Candidate monitors time and helps students monitor it independently; Candidate provides students with advance notice before transitions so they have time to shift gears 	s;	 Candidate provides students with advance notice before transitions so they have time to shift gears; Candidate prepares students for independent/group work through thorough explanation and review of procedures;
Commence (AL Manual Control D. Long) and	1
Component 2d: Managing Student Behavior	1	2	3	4
 Component 2d: Managing Student Behavior Critical Indicators Candidate clearly and assertively communicates expectations; Candidate consistently monitors level of attention and engagement across classroom; Candidate monitors and responds to the behavior of all students; Candidate employ strategies to effectively refocus attention when necessary; Candidate deals with disruptions and off-task behavior quickly, directly, privately when possible, and to get the students back on track; Candidate employs behavior management strategies that are appropriate for the circumstances and 	nd with th	he mini
 Critical Indicators Candidate clearly and assertively communicates expectations; Candidate consistently monitors level of attention and engagement across classroom; Candidate monitors and responds to the behavior of all students; Candidate employ strategies to effectively refocus attention when necessary; Candidate deals with disruptions and off-task behavior quickly, directly, privately when possible, and to get the students back on track; 	nd with th	he mini

Comments:

Domain 3: Instruction Directions: After observing lesson and conducting post-observation conference, circle one performance level for each component based on holistic assessment of critical indicators.

Key: 1 = Baseline (candidate meets few or none of critical indicators); 2 = Approaching Target (candidate meets some critical indicators); 3 = Target (candidate meets most critical indicators); 4 = Exceeds Target (candidate meets all critical indicators)

		1
	mponent 3a: Communicating with Students	1	2	3	4
Critical Indicators:
•	Candidate's purpose for the lesson is clear, including where the lesson is situated within broader le	earning,	and/or	how it	is linked to students' interests;
•	Candidate provides clear directions and procedures specific to lesson activities, and anticipates per
•	Candidate's explanation of content is appropriate, absent of errors, and connects with students' kn				e;
•	Candidate's spoken language is correct, expressive and uses phrases and terms that expand studen	t's vocal	bulary v	vhile supporting student's understanding of concepts and content.
	omponent 3b: Using Questioning and Discussion Techniques	1	2	3	4
Cri	tical Indicators:
•	Candidate structures questions to engage various types of thinking (recall, summary inference) inc	luding of	nes of h	igh cog	nitive challenge (synthesis, evaluation) and provides adequate time for students to respond;
•	Candidate effectively uses students' responses and ideas;
•	Candidate invites students to formulate questions when appropriate;
•	Candidate creates a genuine discussion among students, stepping aside when appropriate;
•	Candidate seeks to engage all students in the discussion.
Co	mponent 3c: Engaging Students in Learning	1	2	3	4
Cri	tical Indicators:
•	Candidate strives to generate enthusiasm for and interest in learning topics and tasks;
•	Candidate limits teacher-talk to ensure that students spend ample time in lessons actively practicin	g and ap	plying s	skills a	nd knowledge;
•	Candidate takes steps to motivate students to work on all tasks and persist even when the tasks are	challeng	ging;
•	Candidate paces lesson to ensure maximum engagement: neither dragging nor rushed, with time for	r closur	e and st	udent reflection.
Co	mponent 3d: Using Assessment in Instruction	1	2	3	4
Cri	tical Indicators:
•	Candidate pays close attention to evidence of student understanding;
•	Candidate utilizes purposeful questions and tasks to elicit evidence of student understanding;
•	Candidate circulates to monitor student learning and to offer feedback;
•	Candidate takes steps to understand students' process of learning, not just the extent of their learning	ng;
•	Candidate takes steps towards having students assess their own learning.
Co	mponent 3e: Demonstrating flexibility and responsiveness	1	2	3	4
	tical Indicators:
•	In reflecting on lesson, candidate accurately identifies students who struggled to meet learning out	comes ar	nd offer.	s specij	ĩc reasonable follow-up steps for helping them succeed;
• In reflecting on lesson, the candidate accurately assesses strengths and weaknesses of planning and instruction and offers alternative actions for improving them;
•	Candidate seizes on "teachable moments" during lesson;
• Candidate adjusts instruction in response to evidence of student understanding (or lack of it);
• In reflecting on lesson, the candidate accurately assesses strengths and weaknesses of classroom environment and offers alternative actions for improving it.

Comments:

Domain 4: Final evaluation

Directions: After observing lesson and conducting post-observation conference, circle one performance level for each component based on holistic assessment of critical indicators.

Key: 1 = Baseline (candidate meets few or none of critical indicators); 2 = Approaching Target (candidate meets some critical indicators); 3 = Target (candidate meets most critical indicators); 4 = Exceeds Target (candidate meets all critical indicators)

Component 4a: Reflecting on Teaching	1	2	3	4
 Critical Indicators: Candidate made insightful reflections on completed lessons; Candidate used insights gained from thoughtful reflection on lessons to improve planning and instruction; Candidate welcomed and actively reflected on feedback received from the cooperating teacher(s) and supervisor and used this reflection constructively to improve planning and instruction.
Component 4b: Participating in a Professional Community	1	2	3	4
Candidate demonstrated respect and a collaborative spirit towards the faculty and staff members in his of the following actions:	or her fi	eld site l	by enga	ging in
• Candidate made a concerted effort to learn classroom and school wide policies, acted in complia	nce wit	h these	policies	s and encouraged students to do so as well ; Candidate responded constructively to any conflicts and disagreements with school faculty and s 	staff ·
 Candidate demonstrated an interest in participating in school events and on-site professional de 		nent acti	ivities :
• Candidate demonstrated an interest in participating in grade-level planning meetings and activ invited.	-
Component 4c: Being a Professional	1	2	3	4
Critical Indicators:
• Candidate was punctual and notified the cooperating teacher and supervisor in a timely way wh was unavoidable ;	nen an d	ibsence	or latei	ress
• Candidate's interactions with students and school faculty demonstrated high standards of hones confidentiality;	ty, integ	grity an	d
• Candidate recognized and maintained age-appropriate boundaries in interactions with student.	s;
• Candidate's dress and appearance were consistently appropriate for a school setting;
• Candidate prioritized student's education and well-being in all considerations of their practice.
Component 4d: Growing and Developing Professionally	1	2	3	4
Critical Indicators:
 Candidate demonstrated commitment to enhancing content and pedagogical content knowledge by engaging in the following actions;
• Candidate sought to address gaps in knowledge by actively reviewing the classroom curriculum an community resources;	d availd	able clas	ssroom	and
 Candidate sought to inform planning and instructional decision-making through research/literatu professional organizations and, where possible, school-level network/cluster professional developm Candidate demonstrated arowth in assertiveness in planning, instruction and interactions. 			on in

Comments:

Part V: Evaluation of the lesson based on the program standards

Key: 1 = Baseline (candidate meets few or none of critical indicators); 2 = Approaching Target (candidate meets some critical indicators); 3 = Target (candidate meets most critical indicators); 4 = Exceeds Target (candidate meets all critical indicators; NO=Not observed)

V.1 _____ The lesson plan has clear objectives that address language functions in the target language.

V.2 _____ Tasks are appropriate for students' varied Spanish proficiencies.

V.3 _____ The lesson effectively addresses connections between cultural practices and perspectives and/or between cultural products and perspectives.

V.4 _____ The lesson activities foster student engagement in at least two of the three modes of communication (interpretive, interpresonal, and presentational).