

Tuition Policy and Financial Aid

Increasing Access to a City College Degree

Background

- Previous tuition increases (1976-2009) used to offset mandated budget reductions.
- State of New York continues to face fiscal challenges.
- Public appropriations for higher education operating expenses not likely to increase.
- CUNY/SUNY 4-year college tuition continues to be significantly lower than other public universities.

Five Year Tuition Plan

- State of New York enacted legislation authorizing CUNY to implement a multi-year tuition plan.
- Tuition increases are predictable and gradual, enabling families to plan.
- Plan requires protection of economically disadvantaged students.
- Tuition increase will fund more faculty, student services, and academic support.

Annual Tuition Comparison of 4-Year Colleges

CUNY/SUNY Versus Other Public Universities in the Region:

	CUNY	SUNY	University of Maryland	University of Connecticut	Rutgers University	Umass Amherst	Penn State University
Resident-FT	$5,130	$5,270	$6,966	$8,256	$10,104	$10,513	$15,124
Resident-PT*	$215	$220	$290	$344	$325	$1,121	$630
NonResident-FT	$11,040	$14,320	$24,337	$25,152	$22,766	$23,301	$27,206
NonResident-PT*	$460	$558	$1,014	$1,048	$738	$2,313	$1,134

CUNY Versus Private Universities in New York City:

	CUNY	Pace University	Fordham University	New York University	Columbia University
Resident-FT	$5,130	$33,962	$39,235	$39,344	$43,088
Resident-PT*	$215	$974	$1,308	$1,159	$1,436
NonResident-FT	$11,040	$33,962	$39,235	$39,344	$43,088
NonResident-PT*	$460	$974	$1,308	$1,159	$1,436

*Part-time tuition is per credit.

CCNY Financial Aid Awards

Fiscal Year 2011

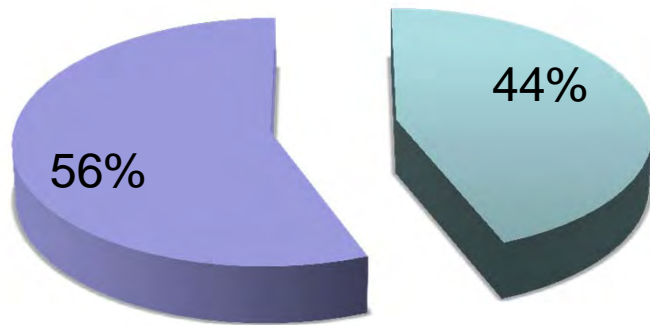

Type of Award	Amount	Number of Awards	Number of Students*
Federal	$60.1 million	15,979	10,454
State	$17.8 million	8,416	6,634
City	$3.3 million	2,322	2,322
Scholarships	$5.2 million	2,280	2,100
Total	$86.4 million	28,997

*Sum of all students in all categories. Many students receive more than one type of award. In FY11 approximately 12,000 out of 16,000 students, or 75% of enrolled students received some form of aid. Figure does not include hundreds of students employed part-time at CCNY.

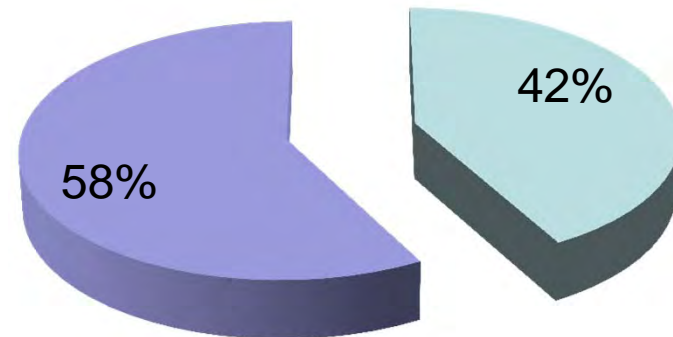

CCNY Aid on par with CUNY Students Attending Tuition Free

City University

■ Not Free ■ Free

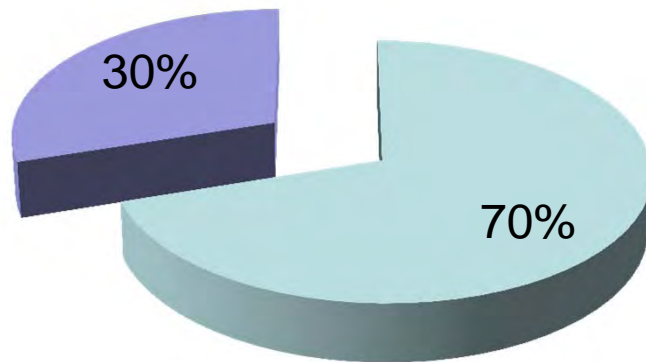

City College

■ Not Free ■ Free

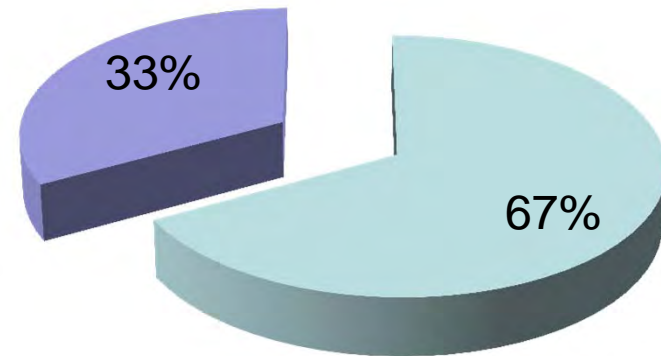

CCNY Aid on par with CUNY Students with Partial Tuition Aid

City University

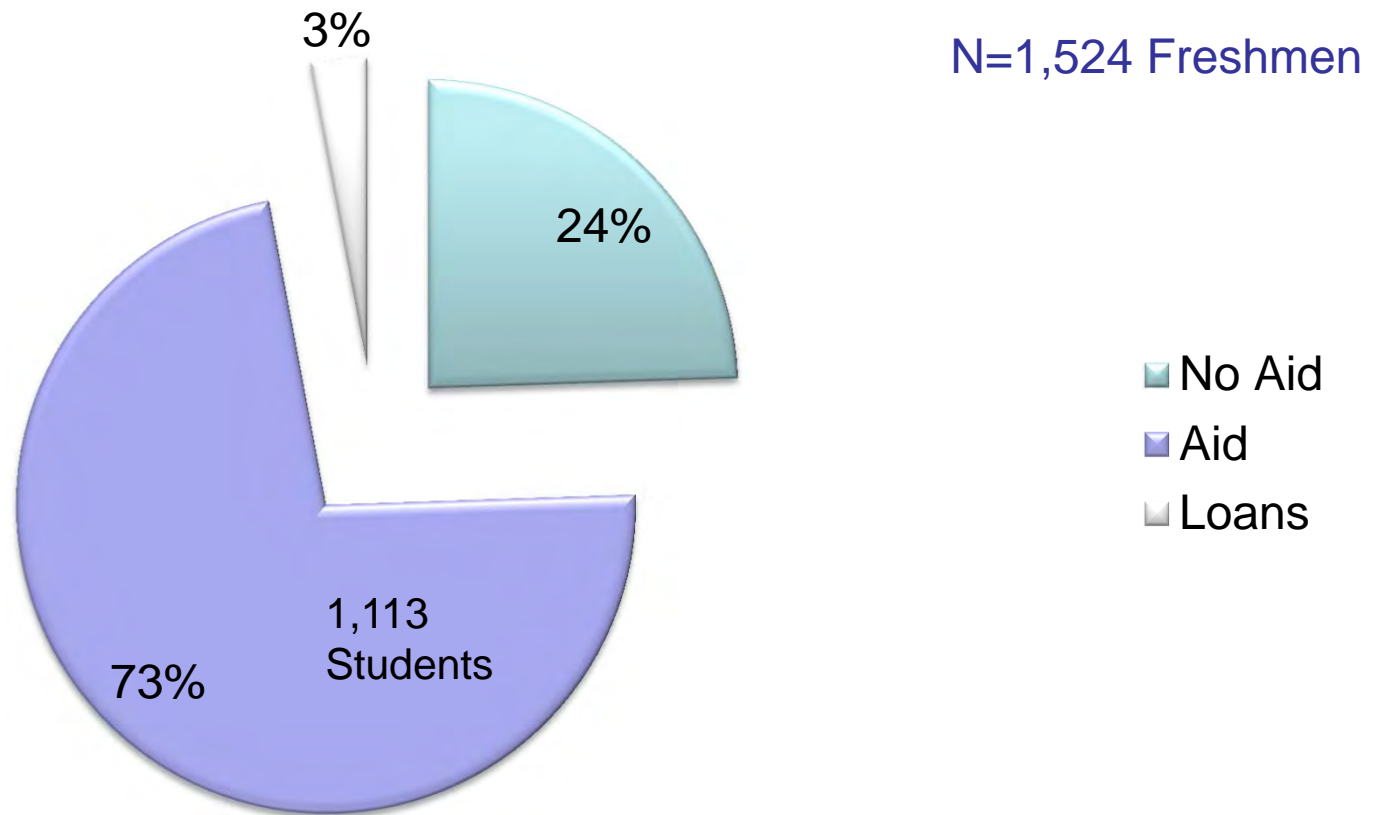

■ None ■ Partial

City College

■ None ■ Partial

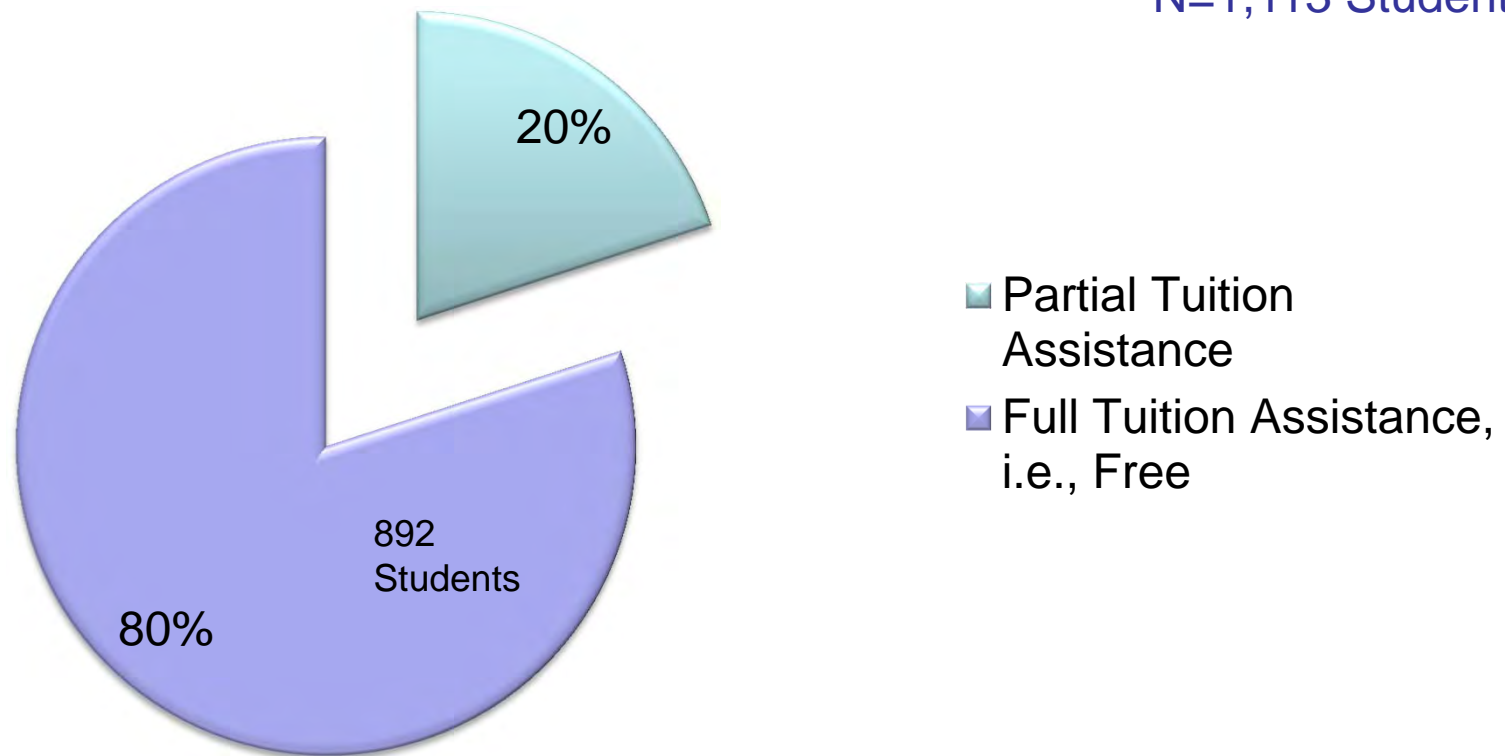

CCNY FT Freshmen Fall 2011 Tuition Payment Sources

- 73% of all freshmen receive tuition assistance.
- $9.7 million in tuition assistance awards made to 1,113 freshmen.

CCNY FT Freshmen Receiving Tuition Assistance

N=1,113 Students

- 80% of freshmen receiving tuition assistance attend City College for free.
- The majority of all freshmen attend tuition free.

Conclusion

- City College continues to be the most affordable four-year public college.
- Tuition increases will be predictable and gradual.
- More resources will be available to hire full-time faculty and support students.
- 67% of all students last year received some form of tuition assistance.
- 73% of all Fall 2011 freshmen receive financial aid.
- 59% of all Fall 2011 freshmen attend tuition free.
- City College is committed to continue its vigorous fundraising efforts to increase student financial aid.