Please follow the steps below in order to ensure an accurate and speedy process:

1. Apply and be accepted to the City College of New York. You will receive notice of your acceptance via email. Print a copy of your acceptance letter for your records.
2. Secure sponsors or funding. In order to receive your I-20 you must provide evidence that you can cover all expenses related to the first full year of tuition, fees and living expenses. If you are unable to cover the costs on your own, you must identify a sponsor. A sponsor is someone who is willing to pay for your expenses, either in part or in whole. You could have more than one and your parents are considered sponsors. You may also be receiving a scholarship or a grant from your home country. This can be used as funding for your expenses.
3. Read and complete the Application for the Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20).
4. Complete the Affidavit of Support (Page 3 of application). Each sponsor will need to fill out and sign a separate Affidavit of support before issuing your I-20.
5. Provide Evidence of Support (Financial Documents): As a reminder, the available funds must be enough to cover at least the first full academic year. All documents must be originals. Copies will not be accepted.
 - Bank Letter: You will need to provide an original letter stating the account balance from your or your sponsor's bank
 - Bank Statements: You or your sponsor must provide current bank statements (savings and/or checking accounts) for the past three months.
 - Supporting Statement for Government Awards or Loans: Students sponsored by or receiving loans from their government must submit an official statement with their name and award. It should include an itemized list of dollar amounts going to tuition and living expenses.
6. Submit Application and Supporting Documents: Once the Application for the Certificate of Eligibility is complete, send it along with the financial documents to the following address:

SPONSOR SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

Applicable evidence of the sponsor's situation, as determined by the accepting school official, should consist of copies of any or all of the following documentation listed below. Failure to provide evidence of sufficient income and/or financial resources may result in the denial from the CUNY campus of the students' application for Form I-20 (Immigration Certificate of Eligibility). Additionally, such failure to provide similar documentation to the Consul Officer may result in denial of an F-1 Visa application.

The sponsor must submit evidence of income and resources, as appropriate:

- A. Written statement from an officer of the bank or other financial institution where the sponsor has accounts, giving the following details regarding the account:
 1. Date account opened

- B. If self-employed:
 1. Copy of last income tax return filed or,
 2. Report of commercial rating concern

Please note that we only accept statements pertinent to liquid, low risk accounts as proof of financial support. Accounts such as retirement savings accounts and stock, no matter how stable the investment, will not be accepted as evidence of financial support.
