

The City College of New York

Office of Evaluation and Testing

If the weather is bad...

- Don't risk it

If the weather conditions will make it treacherous for you travel to CCNY for testing, do not put yourself in danger; there are alternatives. You may contact the office of Evaluation and Testing to reschedule your testing session or to make other arrangements

For steps to schedule or reschedule your test click here>>.

- Check for weather related closings

If inclement weather makes it necessary to close the College, announcements will be made on CCNY's website. The College coordinates unscheduled closings for weather or other emergencies with The City University of New York. As soon as a decision is made to close the College it will be posted on the College's website, communicated to the local television and radio news stations, such as NY1, 1010 WINS, WCBS, etc. regarding any delays, cancellations, closings, or campus emergency.

- If the College is closed, testing sessions will be canceled.

If the college is closed please do not come on campus. The testing center and the office of Evaluation and Testing will be closed as well. We will contact you with alternate date information.

Important Note:

Rather than call the College, it is best to go to the CCNY's website to obtain closing information. If the College is closed, there will be no one available to take your call.

- To help keep you better informed in the event of a campus emergency register for and receive text or voice alerts via cell or home phone and email. To receive these messages, you must be registered. Sign-up now>>